

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXXI.

STANFORD, KY. TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1903. 8 A. M.

NO. 71

JUDGE M. C. SAUFLEY.

Who is holding his last term of the Lincoln Circuit Court, much to the regret of his legion of friends.

SOMERSET.

The Gainsboro Telephone Co. is putting in many new phones and promises satisfaction.

Mr. Nickel of Louisville, has been here in the interest of the railroad Y. M. C. A. He will conduct union services here next Sunday.

The weather continues lovely and the woods are grand in their gorgeous colors. Who but Omnipotence could paint such a magnificent panorama?

Kentucky oratory flows freely from every hilltop and school house and candidates are as numerous as flies in the summer, and all so patriotic that they are willing to be sacrificed for the good of their country.

The brick plant has undergone repairs and is now working with extra force, but is still unable to supply the demands. The many new buildings under construction are being rushed to completion before cold weather. It is a gratification to listen to busy saws and hammers in various parts of the city.

Judge Morrow gave his farewell instructions to the present grand jury. He says after serving 17 consecutive years, nothing but the highest regard and respect has ever been shown him, and in the language of the "Cicero of the Mountains" we might say it is a "national calamity to Kentucky" that he should be retired.

The republicans give a grand finale on Saturday. Extensive preparations are being made for the rally, which we hope will be peacefully observed. The campaigns are becoming wearisome to all engaged and it is to be hoped that the coming election will give a quietus to all and old Kentucky will be peaceful, happy and prosperous.

Only a Very Few Published.

It is not possible for the proprietors to publish more than a very few of the numerous letters received in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and telling of its remarkable cures. They come from people in every walk in life and from every State in the Union. The following from Mr. T. W. Greathouse, of Prattsburg, Ga., speaks for itself: "I would have been dead now but for the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me of chronic diarrhoea after seven years of suffering. I can never say too much in praise of that remedy." For sale by W. N. Craig.

Our brother, Mr. W. P. Walton, editor of the Lexington Democrat, is kind enough to say the following good things about us: The Stanford Interior Journal has rounded out three years under the able editorial and business management of E. C. Walton, who has made it a power in the land. It has, we dare say, more subscribers than any country newspaper in the State, due to the fact that it prints all the news and gives its readers the money's worth. Mr. Walton's energy is indomitable and his determination inviolable.

Teacher—Tommy Brown, tell me the shape of the earth.
Tommy—Round.
Teacher—How do you know?
Tommy—You told me.
Teacher—Well, how do you suppose I know?
Tommy—Oh, I suppose somebody told you.

For a pleasant physic take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Easy to take. Pleasant in effect. For sale by W. N. Craig.

CRAB ORCHARD.

Harrison Payne bought the house and lot of the late Daniel Holman for $350.

W. E. Perkins is back from New Mexico. He left his son Roscoe, somewhat improved.

The remains of the infant of Mr. and Mrs. John Browning, of Livingston, were brought here for burial.

Jim Adams and wife, colored, desire to thank their many friends, both white and colored, for their timely help, which they so badly needed when their home and all its effects were destroyed by fire.

We enjoyed reading a very interesting letter written by Mrs. J. E. Carson, formerly of this place, to relatives here describing the wedding of her niece, Miss Alma Miller, to Mr. W. H. England. The groom is a prominent lawyer, of Topeka, Kan. Miss Miller is the only daughter of the late Geo. N. Miller, of Ranch 101, Oklahoma.

Miss Carrie Spoonamore, of Brodhead, is visiting Mrs. W. E. Perkins. Dr. Edmiston, Miss Addie Cochran and little Eugene Edmiston have returned from Louisville. Mrs. Catherine McAllister has returned from a visit to her niece, Mrs. Sam Scott, at Somerset. Mrs. Scott returned with her. Miss Margaret Salles, of Somerset, is the guest of Miss Hyatt James. Mesdames Curtis Goyer, Sarah Brooks and Miss Mollie Brooks visited Mrs. Vancardale at Stanford.

Mrs. Cutton continues quite sick. Eddie Chanwick has improved enough to be out again. Miss Beulah Edwards remains quite ill with pneumonia. Tom Montgomery, oldest son of the late Will Montgomery, is very ill. Mrs. Emma Farris is visiting Mrs. Robert Collier at Brodhead. Miss Phillips, of London, is visiting her brother, Dr. Phillips. Mrs. J. C. Johnson and little daughter, of near London, were guests of J. C. McWhorter and family.

Mrs. Sabra McClure, our efficient trained nurse, is at home again. Jas. Doores, of Lancaster, is with his brother, Dr. Doores.

THE EDITOR'S SONG.

How dear to my heart is the steady subscriber,

Who pays in advance at the birth of each year—

Who lays down the dollar and offers it gladly

And casts 'round the office a halo of cheer!

Who never says, "Stop it; I can not afford it!"

Or "I'm getting more papers now than I can read!"

But always says "Send it; the family likes it!"

In fact, we think it is a household need!

How welcome he is when he steps in the sanctum—

How he makes our heart throb!

How he makes our eye dance!

We outwardly thank him—we inwardly bless him—

The steady subscriber who pays in advance

Gained 40 Pounds in 30 Days.

For several months our younger brother had been troubled with indigestion. He tried several remedies but got no benefit from them. We purchased some of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and he commenced taking them. Inside of 30 days he had gained 40 pounds in flesh. He is now fully recovered. We have a good trade on the Tablets.—HOLLY BROS., Merchants, Long Branch, Mo. For sale by W. N. Craig.

NEWS NOTES.

Attorney Wm. Julian was asphyxiated in his office at Frankfort.

LANCASTER.

Hon. P. M. McRoberts spoke at the court house Wednesday. Mr. McRoberts is an honor to his party.

H. K. Sebastian bought the Mrs. Ann Doty farm, five miles from town, containing 110 acres, for $4,700. Jonah Marsee sold his farm of 121 acres to Wm. Prewitt for $4,235.

The meeting at the Christian church has been in progress a week. The services by Dr. Smith are intensely interesting and are drawing the thinking people from all the churches to meeting.

The C. W. B. M. has invited all interested in missionary work to attend a special service Wednesday at 10:30 o'clock at the Christian church. An address by the Rev. Dr. Smith will be the special feature of the occasion.

The junior class of the Lancaster High School entertained the senior class Friday evening. The room was beautifully decorated in the class colors of both. Refreshments were served and a most delightful evening was passed.

Miss Annie Herndon's Halloween party was the leading event of merriment Saturday evening. Many unique features added to the interest of the hour. The house decorations suited the occasion and the hostess received congratulations on her taste and originality.

Mr. Millard Rout, the efficient deputy assessor says the taxable property of the county is about $3,000,000, and it will pass the mark this year. November 5th is the day appointed for payment of taxes on property that was not listed, and has been reported by the State Auditor's agent who was here last week.

Gov. Beckham's special train came through Lancaster Thursday noon. The distinguished gentlemen on it were received by an enthusiastic crowd and were listened to with great interest. After the train left the crowd followed Mr. W. J. Price, of Danville, to the court house and heard him expound the great gospel of democracy.

Miss Robertson, of Danville, is the guest of Mrs. Mary Gill. Mrs. J. B. Paxton, of Safford, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Robinson. Rev. R. R. West will preach at the Baptist church Sunday evening. Misses Annie and Minnie Cotton, of Danville, are visiting friends in Lancaster. Waller Hudson, of Central University, is the guest of his parents, Harry Anderson and Joe Burnside, of the Louisville Business College, visited here Saturday and Sunday. M. K. Denny, of the Louisville Dental College, is at home visiting his parents.

Col. A. D. Leavell, chairman of the democratic campaign committee, is being congratulated in advance of the election for the thorough organization and superior management of the campaign in this county. Although the republicans have a majority of 250, it is believed that if the county does not give a democratic majority the vote will be so close that it will be decided democratic victory. The credit for this is due Col. Leavell and his co-workers, J. I. Hamilton, David Ross, A. K. Walker, G. T. Higginbotham, Jerome Rables, C. A. Arnold, G. T. Ballard, Elijah Ray and J. M. Rothwell, all of whom are powerful in the field and cause terror and consternation in the republican camps.

The Lancaster High School football team, composed of gentlemen only, met the Walter's School of Richmond Saturday on the grounds of the latter. Instead of a fair game and courteous treatment which Lancaster certainly expected, in as much as it always receives others in this way, the team met from the first unfair treatment from the players and was set upon by a drunken crowd from the outside until, in disgust and to keep off further disturbance, the Lancaster team left the grounds. They were not paid the guarantee money nor did they in any way receive what was due them. The game was arranged by one bearing an assumed name and instead of their game being composed of only bona fide students, as was especially specified in the agreement, one of them proved to be a professor in this school, who was formerly a member of the Princeton University team.

Do Good—It Pays.

A Chicago man has observed that: "Good deeds are better than real estate deeds—some of the latter are worthless. Act kindly and gently, show sympathy and lend a helping hand. You can not possibly lose by it." Most men appreciate a kind word and encouragement more than substantial help. There are persons in this community who might truthfully say: "My good friend, cheer up. A few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will rid you of your cold, and there is no danger whatever from pneumonia when you use that medicine. It always cures. I know it for it has helped me out many a time." Sold by W. N. Craig.

THE address of Chairman S. W. Hager, to the democrats of Kentucky, has the ring of a man who knows what he is talking about. His assertions are not based on idle rumor, but on a careful poll of the state, and upon them he conservatively figures a majority of 20,000. It is in the power of the white people of the state to make it largely exceed those figures, and we hope and believe they will do so. All sorts of frauds will be attempted by a reckless and unscrupulous foe, such as importing negroes, padding the returns in the 11th district and other methods known to the party of assassination, but if democrats will be on guard everywhere, they will go for naught. Let every democrat gird his armor on and never say quit till the polls close at 4 o'clock this afternoon. A vast deal depends on the result of today's election. No true man will do less than his full duty to make it a famous victory for law, order and the upbuilding of the state.

THE five days' journey of Gov. Beckham on board a special train came to an end at Lagrange Saturday afternoon. During the time the governor traveled about 1,400 miles, made over 60 speeches and in the aggregate addressed not less than 60,000 persons. He passed through 10 Congressional districts and made speeches in 37 counties. At the end the governor expressed himself as well pleased, saying that he never saw the democrats more enthusiastic over the State. The last day's journey was from Covington to Louisville. Speeches were made at Worthville, Sparta, Bedford and Lagrange. At Bedford the governor spoke to between 4,000 and 5,000 people. After the speaking the train went to Louisville and Gov. Beckham proceeded to Frankfort. He made his last speech at Bardtown yesterday.

THE republicans, in their parade at Somerset Saturday, displayed conspicuously a hangman's noose, and if they will go on over to Indiana and hang Taylor with it, their friends, the democrats, will forgive them for many of their sins of omission and commission.

GOV. BRADLEY has issued a long and labored "address to the people," but it comes too late and with too bad a grace to affect even a few voters. It hasn't been many months since Gov. Bradley said almost as bad things of Belknap as the democrats could possibly say.

A VOTE for the republican ticket is an endorsement of Roosevelt and his social equality practices.

It's all over but the yoting and shout ing and we'll wager that the democrats will do the latter.

Now let Belknap go back to "busi- nes."

POLITICAL.

While engaged in a political discus- sion a man in New York killed his best friend.

Negro leaders are planning for a big industrial congress of their race to be held in 1904.

Sanford P. Dole was appointed by the President to be United States Dis- trict Judge for Hawaii. George R. Carter was appointed Governor.

Judge M. C. Sautley made a telling speech for democracy at the court house Monday. The judge is putting in some telling licks for his party.—Lancaster Record.

Chairman Dick, of the State republi- can executive committee in Ohio, says that Herrick will be elected by 100,000 plurality and that the Legislature will be republican by a big majority.

The chairman of the Maryland Dem- ocratic State Central Committee says the democrats will carry the State by 15,000 majority and ought to have 90 members of the Legislature on joint ballot. The republicans claim to be equally confident of victory.

Dr. W. Godfrey Hunter was notified by telegram that a meeting of the 11th district committee had been called by J. S. Cooper for last night at London to take up the Edwards-Hunter contest. Dr. Hunter did not attend and denounced the meeting as a political trick.

Both parties will hold caucuses in Washington Saturday. Joseph G. Can- non will be nominated by the republi- cans for speaker of the House. John S. Williams, of Mississippi, will no doubt receive the complimentary nomi- nation of the democrats for speaker.

Democrats all over the union are tak- ing great interest in the New York municipal contest. Kentucky and Ma- ryland are conceded to the democrats and if Tammany triumphs in New York it is believed it will be a great aid to the party in the National campaign next year.

Judge Faulkner in a lengthy written opinion handed down at Manchester granted a permanent injunction against the county clerks, restraining them from placing the name of W. Godfrey Hunter on the ballots in the 11th dis- trict as the republican nominee for Congress.

A dispatch from Lancaster says: J. P. Doty, late candidate for the republi- can nomination for the Legislature, has announced that he will support Beckham and his ticket, including Bell for circuit judge. "I draw the line when the party becomes a haven of rest for assassins," says Mr. Doty.

HERE AND THERE.

The President has issued his Thank- giving proclamation.

Fire destroyed the $100,000 opera house at Johnstown, Pa.

Robert Stanley, a prominent resident of McCracken county, died of hic- coughs.

Mrs. Horace Cofer, of Elizabethtown, dropped dead of heart's disease while giving her husband, who had typhoid fever, a dose of medicine.

Four persons were killed and a corpse was thrown from a coffin and mutilated by a Southern railway train running into a funeral party at a crossing near Concord, N. C.

President Paul M. Moore, of the Kentucky Press Association, has called a meeting of the executive committee to be held at the Galt House, Louis- ville, Saturday next.

Ison Updike, of Greensburg, Ind., while fixing harness that had been tampered with on Halloween night, was kicked in the head by a horse and his neck was broken.

John Murray Dowie, in an interview at his home in Essex, Ia., asserts that John Alexander Dowie is his son, and that the fact can be established by re- cords at Edinburg, Scotland.

The $100,000 college belonging to the Christian Brothers, a Catholic order, has been destroyed by fire under con- demnation proceedings in New York State in order to secure grounds for the water shed.

Nine of the 13 tobacco warehouses controlled by the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse Company have been merg- ed into four houses. Hereafter the company will operate only eight houses, using the others for storage purposes.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Asbury College, Wilmore, has a re- vival in progress.

Kentucky Jews have almost raised the $10,000 allotted for the Wise mem- orial fund.

Eld. Joseph Severance filled the pul- pit of the Christian church at Middle- boro Sunday.

Within one year every Methodist church in Louisville has changed pas- tors, and the presiding elder has chang- ed.

The Bible Society's yearly receipts were $412,405.64: number of Bibles is- sued 1,993,558. Total issue of Bibles 72,670,783.

Last year there were 68 Southern Presbyterian churches formed and 38 dissolved. The First church at Nash- ville led in members added by examina- tion, the total being 58.

Rev. O. M. Huey assisted Rev. J. C. Carmicle in a two weeks' meeting at the Baptist church, Preachersville, which resulted in 21 confessions. Rev. Huey baptized 18 into that church Sun- day afternoon in the presence of a large crowd.

Rev. W. R. Davidson writes as fol- lows from Shelby City: Our protracted meeting at Waynesburg was a victory—12 conversions and baptisms. Thence we went to Pleasant Point and enjoyed a 12 days' meeting, where we had a glorious victory—eight conversions, eight baptized, one awaits baptism, one restored. I am now on my fourth pas- torate with this church. I was ordained in this church 20 years ago. Have been its pastor four different times, have baptized over 100 into its fellow- ship—56 at one time. I go next to my church at Eubanks to engage in my eighth protracted meeting. I have been pastor of this church eight years and I think this is one of the best little churches in the South Kentucky Asso- ciation.

I have been pastor of this church eight years and I think this is one of the best little churches in the South Kentucky Asso- ciation.

Rev. W. R. Davidson writes as fol- lows from Shelby City: Our protracted meeting at Waynesburg was a victory—12 conversions and baptisms. Thence we went to Pleasant Point and enjoyed a 12 days' meeting, where we had a glorious victory—eight conversions, eight baptized, one awaits baptism, one restored. I am now on my fourth pas- torate with this church. I was ordained in this church 20 years ago. Have been its pastor four different times, have baptized over 100 into its fellow- ship—56 at one time. I go next to my church at Eubanks to engage in my eighth protracted meeting. I have been pastor of this church eight years and I think this is one of the best little churches in the South Kentucky Asso- ciation.

YOUR attention is called to the sale advertisement of Judge John W. Hughes, of Mercer, which occurs Friday, Nov. 6. It will be the largest sale in that section of the State in years. See on our fourth page what he will dispose of.

DROPPED DEAD.—A Miss Coulter, of Casey, who was stopping at Asa Peyton's, at Moreland, dropped dead while washing her face there yesterday. She had been in apparently good health and her death is a great shock to her friends and relatives.

GOOD SPEECH.—Judge M. C. Saufley, of this place, made a rousing speech to the democrats of Shelby county at Shelbyville Saturday afternoon. His speech was well received and greatly enjoyed, notwithstanding the judge was suffering with a severe cold.

WILL A. BROOKS, of Crab Orchard, who is traveling in the South, makes the following prediction in a letter mailed from Spring City, Tenn.: "Lincoln will go democratic 75 to 125; Bell will win by 350; Beckham's majority will be 13,475." We shall see what kind of a prophet Mr. Brooks is.

WHILE they were attending the democratic speaking at Ottenheim Friday night some skunk out to pieces the harness of Messrs. James B. Carter and Jesse C. Lynn. If the coward who did it will let either of the above gentlemen know who he is, we'll guarantee he will never be guilty of such a sneaking act again.

ONE of the best democratic speeches we have heard for some time was delivered by Claude Sutton at Brodhead Saturday night. The speaker's education has been sadly neglected, but he has picked up enough material one way and another to make a speech full of truths and indisputable facts. In short Mr. Sutton is a wonder and is the possessor of a memory that is remarkable indeed. He can read a column of matter and retain it word for word. He has a good delivery and his gesticulations are graceful and his manner easy. He fires for a saw mill but puts in his spare time reading good democratic papers, his favorite of which is Bryan's Commoner.

THE regular term of circuit court began yesterday with Judge M. C. Saufley and County Attorney Owsley present. The following grand jury was empaneled: T. M. Holmes, G. A. Luckey, M. H. Reid, O. P. King, H. D. Newland, A. C. Alford, A. C. Robinson, Daniel Caldwell, Richard Hester, David Newland and Henderson Baugh. Mr. A. C. Robinson was appointed foreman. The following compose the petit jury: Porter Robinson, Cicero Reynolds, J. E. Lynn, Hall Anderson, W. T. Holdam, B. C. Sandridge, E. P. Manuel, W. A. Coffey, Richard Smith, J. C. Neal, L. B. Nunneley, J. M. Coffey, G. W. Spangler, J. M. McRoberts, Geo. R. Engleman, A. G. Coffey, J. T. Bohon, R. L. Porter, B. F. Goode, A. B. Siler, M. O. Vandever, Anderson Nunneley, Wm. Murphy and T. M. Pennington. After a comprehensive charge to the grand jury court was adjourned until Wednesday morning.

ACCIDENTALLY KILLED.—At Brodhead Saturday night Horace Benton accidentally shot and killed Josiah Sutton. Both boys were about the same age—18—and belonged to good families. The killing was the result of a joke the boys were attempting to play. The two had agreed to have a sham fight to scare some visiting boys and when they met in Kelsing's restaurant they knocked against each other. Benton drew a pistol he thought was not loaded and pulled the trigger. To his surprise and horror Sutton fell to the floor fatally wounded and died in about five minutes. Benton is crazed with grief and has threatened to destroy himself, but his parents and friends are keeping a close watch on him to prevent his doing such a thing. The killing cast a gloom over the quiet little town and old and young flocked to the home of the deceased boy Sunday to offer consolation and help to the grief-stricken father and mother. The burial occurred Sunday afternoon and none of the large crowd that attended it was sadder than the father of the boy who had accidentally slain his friend and companion.

STAMP, brother stamp; stamp like you "used to." Be sure to put your X under the game little rooster.

30 DAYS.—Logan Coffey and Amelia Craig, both colored, were given 30 days in jail for stealing corn from Mr. H. C. Walter's field.

THE game rooster has no fears of his feathers falling to-day. He has won many a political battle and is in fine fighting trim this morning.

To vote the democratic ticket straight, stamp your X in the circle under the rooster. Be sure you do it before the polls close at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

MRS. BESSIE R. MCKINNEY has sold to Henry Hester her farm of 83 acres and one pole of land for $6,200. The farm lies on the Hustonville pike, one mile from town.

$10 50.—The Hallowe'en party given at the college by the Earnest Workers of the Presbyterian church Saturday night cleared $10.50. It was a most enjoyable occasion.

THE boys played havoc with the gates and signs Hallowe'en night. It was fun to the youngsters no doubt, but those of us who had to hunt gates next morning were not tickled to death, to say the least of it.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL, of Stanford, has just rounded out its third year under the management of Editor E. C. Walton. The INTERIOR JOURNAL is one of the best and most prosperous papers in the State.—Louisville Times.

VOTE early and vote under the rooster. A single stamp in the circle under the game bird will be a vote for the entire democratic ticket. After having done that, vote "yes" on the courthouse and Constitutional Amendment propositions and you'll feel better.

WESTERFIELD.—Chief Train Dispatcher Logan M. Westerfield has been appointed Master of Trains to succeed Mr. B. N. Roller, deceased. Mr. Westerfield is a splendid railroad man and will fill any position that he will accept with credit. It is believed that Mr. Carl A. Moore, of the Louisville dispatcher's office, will succeed Mr. Westerfield, although friends of Mr. W. W. Wright, of the Livingston office, are pulling and almost praying for his appointment.

THE following in hand bill form is said to be scattered from one end to the other of Rockcastle county: "This is no time to even up old scores. Don't risk any scratching. Vote the straight republican ticket and save poor Caleb Powers' neck, or his blood will cry out from the ground against you forever. If you do your duty, victory is ours." Dr. A. G. Lovell and others sign the masterly production and we take it that the Caleb Powers plank is considered by the republicans as the all-important one in the "Belknap and Business" platform.

MATRIMONIAL.

Charles Redley and Miss Louisa Taylor were joined heart and hand Friday.

Arrangements have been made for the marriage of Miss May Goelett and the Duke of Roxbury next month.

W. B. King and Miss Louisa Murphy were made one at Rev. J. M. Cook's by that gentleman Saturday.

Hon. Ollie James, Congressman-elect from the First district, will on Dec. 2 marry Miss Ruth Thomas, of Marion, Crittenden county.

Mr. Charles H. Hayden, formerly of this county, but now transfer clerk in the railway mail service in Louisville, was married Thursday to Miss Ida Redmon, of Parker's Grove. The wedding was a quiet, but a very elegant affair. The groom is a fine young man with friends galore, while his bride is said to be a charming young woman and is as pretty as she is popular.

A young man in a distant state had been conducting a heart-to-heart correspondence with a girl in Minneapolis for three years and at last proposed seriously. In reply he received a letter and photo. The letter announced that she had been married two years, and the photo was of her baby. "My husband and I have enjoyed your letters very much," she wrote, "but I guess you'd better stop writing now, as I have to spend all my time minding the baby." Now the unhappy young man has a life feud against the sex divine.

Mr. W. Mason Morris and Miss Byrt James, both of Crab Orchard, were married in Louisville last week at the Willard Hotel. The attendants were Miss Margaret Salice, of Somerset, and Morris Perkins, of Crab Orchard. After spending a few days in the Falls City they returned to Crab Orchard, where they are now a home to friends. The bride is a petite blonde, pretty and popular and is a charming young woman. She is a sister of Mr. J. Will James and Mrs. James F. Holdam and has many friends in this and adjoining counties. Mr. Morris is cashier of the Crab Orchard Banking Co. and is a fine young man. He has lived at Crab Orchard about a year, during which time he has made friends of all with whom he has become acquainted. The INTERIOR JOURNAL extends its best wishes to the happy pair and bespeaks for them a long married life filled with joy and happiness.

Doesn't Respect Old Age.

It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect for old age, but just the contrary in the case of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They cut off maladies, no matter how severe and irrespective of old age. Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Fever, Constipation all yield to this perfect Pill. 25c at all drug stores.

Two masked men held up the assistant cashier of the telephone company at Nashville and robbed the safe of $3,000.

E. H. Ranreath, of Minneapolis, shot and killed his wife and swallowed carbolic acid.
